

I urge the FCC to stay strong and protect the privacy of the Wisconsin people. The no call list is something that has been needed for a long, long time.